

School of Environmental Studies Open Campus

On May 26, School of Environmental Studies' Open Campus was held and NUGELP was introduced during the program. Current NUGELP students and staff members participated in the panel introduction session and enjoyed talking to many prospective students. We will be looking forward to see them again as NUGELP students next year.

