

Master's Thesis Defense

On July 24, Graduate School of Environmental Studies hosted Master's thesis defense session, and 6 NUGELP students, expecting to graduate this fall, namely Geng-san, Hoang-san, Lam-san, Hung-san, Francis-san, and Lumbasi-san, defended their Master's thesis. All 6 students presented their hard work and research outcome after 2 years of NUGELP experiences very well, and active discussion among students and professors took place after the presentation. Well done everyone!
