

Jakarta study tour 2013

NUGELP students and 4 professors participated Jakarta study tour from November 17th to 22nd. They had many opportunities not only to visit organizations but also to see actual project sites and to ride BRT to learn implementation of projects which specifically related with solid waste management and urban transportation. Moreover students can get idea of global leader through interaction with Japanese staffs who are working in Indonesia.

